Carolina Alliance adds Curtice Winsch as Loan Officer

GREENVILLE (Sept. 13, 2016) – Carolina Alliance Bank (OTCQX: CRLN) today announced that Curtice Winsch has joined its Greenville office as a Loan Officer, effective immediately.

Winsch will join Carolina Alliance’s Mortgage Division, which is headquartered in Greenville. This is a new position that was added as Carolina Alliance continues to expand its Greenville presence. Winsch is a veteran banker with almost two decades of experience in the Greenville market.

“Curtice has a tremendous knowledge of the Greenville area and has established herself here as a successful banker, said David Barnett, President of Carolina Alliance’s South Carolina Western Region. “We are pleased she has joined our team at Carolina Alliance and we look forward to working with her.”

Prior to joining Carolina Alliance, Winsch garnered experience in many aspects of banking from lending and financial planning to management. In addition, she has received accolades throughout the years for her production and leadership skills.

Winsch earned a bachelor’s degree in language and international trade from Clemson University. She is active in the Greenville community having graduated from Leadership Greenville 30 and is a volunteer with the Shepherd’s Gate. She and her family reside in Simpsonville.

Winsch can be reached at cwinsch@carolinaalliancebank.com or (864) 312-3651.

Carolina Alliance Bank is a community bank with 10 locations in Upstate South Carolina, Western North Carolina and Charlotte. It places its primary emphasis on consumer, private/professional and small to mid-sized business banking.
